1 Corinthians 15:3-4

For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures,

1 Corinthians 15:17

...If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins.

The work of Jesus—death, burial, and resurrection—allows us to experience the deep love of God.

John 3:16

"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life."

Romans 5:8

But God shows his love for us in that while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.

Ephesians 2:4-5

But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ

The work of Jesus—death, burial, and resurrection—allows us to experience the deep love of God.

The work of Jesus—death, burial, and resurrection—allows us to experience a relationship with God.

John 14:6

I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.

The work of Jesus—death, burial, and resurrection—allows us to experience a relationship with God.

The work of Jesus—death, burial, and resurrection—guarantees that eternal life starts now.

John 5:24

Truly, truly, I say to you, whoever hears my word and believes him who sent me has eternal life. He does not come into judgment, but has passed from death to life.

2 Corinthians 4:16-18

So we do not lose heart. Though our outer self is wasting away, our inner self is being renewed day by day. For this light momentary affliction is preparing for us an eternal weight of glory beyond all comparison, as we look not to the things that are seen but to the things that are unseen. For the things that are seen are transient, but the things that are unseen are eternal.
